	IAAMA Member Forum Registration Opens
10:15am	IAAMA President Karen McKenzie Opening of the 2018 IAAMA AGM 'Sustainability and Safe Practices' Our industry can be a spotlight on the need for sustainability in work practices, environmental management and clinical approaches to holistic healthcare and manufacturing. Karen looks at the challenges our industry is facing and how to move forward with coherency in chaotic times
10:30am	IAAMA AGM
11:30am	Sue Upton: 'Aromatics, Botanicals and Mixed Modalities' Sue Upton is a Naturopathic Doctor and has a unique perspective on our industry. She is qualified in Botany, Aromatherapy and Aromatic Medicine. Sue addresses the clinical approaches and applications of plant medicine across a range differing complementary modalities
12:00md	LUNCH
1:00pm	IAAMA Safety Officer Raelene Ng: 'Best Practice and Reporting Practices for Practitioners' Raelene has an established private practice and is a safety advocate for Aromatherapy. Raelene will look at reporting tools and easy methods to empower your own professional standards regarding dilutions and methods of administration within a competitive and commercialised essential oil marketplace
1:30pm	A Sharing of the Wisdom: What's your favourite Essential Oil discussion A little bit of fun and a little bit of a challenge. Practitioners share with practitioners anecdotal evidence about their favourite essential oil story
2:00pm	Dr Tamara Agnew: 'Research approaches in Aromatic Practice' Tamara is on the Tisserand Institute Advisory Board and holds a PhD from the University of South Australia following her study on the effect of essential oils and aromatherapy on the physical and psychosocial symptoms of acne vulgaris. Tamara has developed expertise in conducting systematic reviews, clinical trials and psychometric evaluations. Tamara holds a first class honours degree from Edinburgh Napier University where she studied Complementary Healthcare (Aromatherapy). Tamara has published in multiple scientific journals and has contributed to an aromatherapy textbook, authored by Jennifer Peace Rhind. She has also reviewed articles for several journals. She is passionate about aromatherapy, integrative health care, ageing, and she has a particular interest in building the evidence base in these fields
3:00pm	Desert Singers Acapella from Port Augusta Life is a song; fragrance is a song and time to get our joy on!
